THE SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH AND OF FAITH

Catechism of the Catholic Church - Article 1118 - 1122

"The sacraments are "of the Church" in the double sense that they are "by her" and "for her." They are "by the Church," for she is the sacrament of Christ's action at work in her through the mission of the Holy Spirit. They are "for the Church" in the sense that "the sacraments make the Church,"³⁵ since they manifest and communicate to men, above all in the Eucharist, the mystery of communion with the God who is love, One in three persons.

Forming "as it were, one mystical person" with Christ the head, the Church acts in the sacraments as "an organically structured priestly community."³⁶ Through Baptism and Confirmation the priestly people is enabled to celebrate the liturgy, while those of the faithful "who have received Holy Orders, are appointed to nourish the Church with the word and grace of God in the name of Christ."³⁷

The ordained ministry or ministerial priesthood is at the service of the baptismal priesthood.³⁸ The ordained priesthood guarantees that it really is Christ who acts in the sacraments through the Holy Spirit for the Church. The saving mission entrusted by the Father to his incarnate Son was committed to the apostles and through them to their successors: they receive the Spirit of Jesus to act in his name and in his person.³⁹ The ordained minister is the sacramental bond that ties the liturgical action to what the apostles said and did and, through them, to the words and actions of Christ, the source and foundation of the sacraments.

The three sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders confer, in addition to grace, a sacramental character or "seal" by which the Christian shares in Christ's priesthood and is made a member of the Church according to different states and functions. This configuration to Christ and to the Church, brought about by the Spirit, is indelible,⁴⁰ it remains for ever in the Christian as a positive disposition for grace, a promise and guarantee of divine protection, and as a vocation to divine worship and to the service of the Church. Therefore these sacraments can never be repeated.

Christ sent his apostles so that "repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all nations."⁴¹ "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."⁴² The mission to baptize, and so the sacramental mission, is implied in the mission to evangelize, because the sacrament is prepared for by the word of God and by the faith which is assent to this word:

The People of God is formed into one in the first place by the Word of the living God... the preaching of the Word is required for the sacramental ministry itself, since the sacraments are sacraments of faith, drawing their origin and nourishment from the Word.⁴³"

Prayer to St. Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in Battle; Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into Hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

SACRAMENTOS DE LA IGLESIA Y DE LA FE
Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica - Artículo 1118 - 1122

“Los sacramentos son "de la Iglesia" en el doble sentido de que existen "por ella" y "para ella". Existen "por la Iglesia" porque ella es el sacramento de la acción de Cristo que actúa en ella gracias a la misión del Espíritu Santo. Y existen "para la Iglesia", porque ellos son "sacramentos [...] que constituyen la Iglesia" (San Agustín, De civitate Dei 22, 17; Santo Tomás de Aquino, Summa theologiae 3, q.64, a. 2 ad 3), ya que manifiestan y comunican a los hombres, sobre todo en la Eucaristía, el misterio de la Cocomunión del Dios Amor, uno en tres Personas.

Formando con Cristo-Cabeza "como una única [...] persona mística" (Pío XII, enc. Mystici Corporis), la Iglesia actúa en los sacramentos como "comunidad sacerdotal" "orgánicamente estructurada" (LG 11): gracias al Bautismo y la Confirmación, el pueblo sacerdotal se hace apto para celebrar la liturgia; por otra parte, algunos fieles "que han recibido el sacramento del Orden están instituidos en nombre de Cristo para ser los pastores de la Iglesia con la palabra y la gracia de Dios" (LG 11).

El ministerio ordenado o sacerdocio ministerial (LG 10) está al servicio del sacerdocio bautismal. Garantiza que, en los sacramentos, sea Cristo quien actúa por el Espíritu Santo en favor de la Iglesia. La misión de salvación confiada por el Padre a su Hijo encarnado es confiada a los Apóstoles y por ellos a sus sucesores: reciben el Espíritu de Jesús para actuar en su nombre y en su persona (cf Jn 20,21-23; Lc 24,47; Mt 28,18-20). Así, el ministro ordenado es el vínculo sacramental que une la acción litúrgica a lo que dijeron y realizaron los Apóstoles, y por ellos a lo que dijo y realizó Cristo, fuente y fundamento de los sacramentos.

Los tres sacramentos del Bautismo, de la Confirmación y del Orden sacerdotal confieren, además de la gracia, un carácter sacramental o "sello" por el cual el cristiano participa del sacerdocio de Cristo y forma parte de la Iglesia según estados y funciones diversos. Esta configuración con Cristo y con la Iglesia, realizada por el Espíritu, es indeleble (Concilio de Trento: DS 1609); permanece para siempre en el cristiano como disposición positiva para la gracia, como promesa y garantía de la protección divina y como vocación al culto divino y al servicio de la Iglesia. Por tanto, estos sacramentos no pueden ser reiterados.

Cristo envió a sus Apóstoles para que, "en su Nombre, proclamasen a todas las naciones la conversión para el perdón de los pecados" (Lc 24,47). "Haced discípulos de todas las naciones, bautizándolos en el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo" (Mt 28,19). La misión de bautizar, por tanto la misión sacramental, está implicada en la misión de evangelizar, porque el sacramento es preparado por la Palabra de Dios y por la fe que es consentimiento a esta Palabra:

«El pueblo de Dios se reúne, sobre todo, por la palabra de Dios vivo [...] Necesita la predicación de la palabra para el ministerio mismo de los sacramentos. En efecto, son sacramentos de la fe que nace y se alimenta de la palabra» (PO 4).»

Boundaries are limits that we set between ourselves and others. Lines to separate our personal space, emotions, and behaviors for ourselves and with others. Boundaries also include the limits of what is appropriate in a specific situation. There are several different types of boundaries, including physical, technological, emotional, behavioral and boundaries involving sexual misconduct.

Los límites son restricciones que establecemos entre nosotros y los demás para separar nuestro espacio personal, nuestras emociones y nuestros comportamientos para nosotros mismos y con los demás. También incluyen los límites de lo que es apropiado en una situación determinada. Existen distintos tipos de límites, como físicos, tecnológicos, emocionales, de comportamiento, y los relacionados con la conducta sexual inapropiada.

SUMMER STUDY SERIES - FATHERS OF THE CHURCH

What did the Church believe and teach in the first decades and centuries after Christ? A large number of writings of the Fathers of the Church have survived. The earliest Fathers were disciples of the Apostles themselves, and the majority of the Fathers are bishops—successors to the Apostles—whose writings are a witness to the uninterrupted Tradition of the Church. We will see how the Fathers articulated the Christian understanding of the Trinity and the two natures of Christ, doctrines which were enshrined in the Nicene Creed and the first four ecumenical councils. In addition, they discuss many things which our Protestant friends reject— the structure of the Mass, the Real Presence, apostolic succession, the hierarchy of the Church, the role of Mary. When we read the Church Fathers we discover that the doctrines of the Catholic Church have been clearly taught by the Church since the beginning.

If you are interested in being part of a summer study group devoted to the Church Fathers, please sign up at the office so we can get an approximate head count. We will not be reading books about the Fathers, but the actual writings of the Fathers. Call the office for more information.
